knowledge of the workings of the supply system. The exchanges and and of the people here with whom I had worked over the years.

One of the reasons for my staying on in Russia is the great interest I have in Russian culture and the exchanges conducted between our countries. I believe that these exchanges are of great importance not only for the development of relations between our countries but also for the development of understanding between peoples. Therefore, I am pleased to see that the exchanges between our countries continue to flourish.

One of the most important aspects of these exchanges is the increase in cultural and educational activities. This includes the exchange of students and scholars, the establishment of joint research centers, and the development of joint projects.

In conclusion, I would like to express my appreciation for the opportunities that are provided by these exchanges. I believe that they are essential for the development of a close and friendly relationship between our countries.

I would also like to thank those individuals and agencies who have supported these exchanges. Their contributions have been invaluable and I am grateful for their support.
